Greetings to the Graduates

As we go through life, our progress is marked by special moments when we turn corners and new horizons open before us. This convocation of scholars celebrates the happy observance of such an important turning point in your lives. The ceremony is steeped in customs that have been passed down to us over the centuries. It is sedate, colorful, traditional, and meaningful. We hope you enjoy the experience and participate in the goodwill that permeates a day to be remembered.

By conferring its degrees, the University confirms that you have successfully fulfilled a rigorous course of study and have earned the right to enter into the collegiality of educated women and men. Be proud of what you have done, and be grateful for what the University has done for you.

Understand that the University of Alberta is not just the campus which you know so well. It is everything that our graduates of yesterday, today, and tomorrow accomplish to make our world a better place to live in. Today you join a worldwide community of alumni, a hundred thousand strong, whose support and interest is vital to the enhancement of the quality and the value of the degrees which you receive today. Keep in touch, and never forget the University that nurtured the mind you use every day. You entered to grow in wisdom. You leave the better to serve your community and yourselves.

Welcome and Congratulations.

Lois E Hole
Chancellor

Universities began as small collections of scholars who worked together to preserve and advance knowledge. Students came to study with them and, in due course, an administrative structure arose to provide system and recognition for those studies. This ancient structure is preserved at the University of Alberta, with the faculty and the students providing the core of the University's purpose: teaching and the advancement of knowledge. The faculty's task is facilitated by their colleagues in the academic staff, the Faculty Service Officers, the Administrative Professional Officers and the Librarians, and the University's dedicated support staff.

The faculty, numbering some 1,600, is responsible for creating programs of study, for teaching, and for evaluating the learning of the student body, both undergraduate and graduate. In addition, faculty members are responsible for the scholarly reputation of the University by preserving and sharing knowledge and by pursuing new ideas and knowledge through their research.

The faculty and staff congratulate you, the graduates, on the successful completion of your present studies which is recognized by the degrees to which you are admitted today. Your achievement deserves praise. We hope your present knowledge provides a sound base for an education which will continue throughout a rewarding life. We would remind you of the advice given to graduands by Honorary Degree Recipient Tommy Banks: "Try to be a good person. You will be amazed how rewarding it is."

Congratulations from the Faculty and Staff!

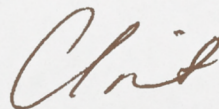

I am delighted to join with your families and friends in congratulating you on the successful completion of your studies. You have reached this important milestone through a great deal of effort and hard work. You can be proud of your accomplishments.

Graduates of the University of Alberta... you have two supreme advantages. One is that you live in Canada. The second is that you are graduating from this fine institution. Today, you leave with a credential that opens new doors and exciting opportunities. You also take with you the memory of having attended a university that in the conduct of its own affairs provides some striking lessons in how to succeed in today's world.

For many of you, convocation may mark the end of your formal program of studies. I sincerely hope though, that you will continue to pursue learning throughout your lives.

On behalf of Premier Klein and the Government of Alberta, I wish you all success and good fortune in the future.

Sincerely,

Clint Dunford, Minister
Advanced Education and Career Development

Honorary Degree Recipient

A political, educational and social activist, Mr Claude Ryan of Outremont, Quebec is an extraordinary Quebecer and Canadian.

An ardent supporter of education and life-long learning, Mr Ryan's early and active participation in Catholic youth work led him to become a defender of, and advocate for, education. He was general secretary for L'Action Catholique Canadienne (1945-62), president of the Committee on Adult Education, Youth Ministry, Government of Quebec (1962-63), and member of the board of trustees, UN Institute for Training and Research (1964-71). He also served as Minister of Education and Minister of Higher Education and Science for the Quebec Liberal Party (1985).

As an editorial writer and later editor and publisher of Le Devoir (1964-78), the influential French-language daily in Montreal, he played a leading role on the Canadian political scene, presenting issues that were of major importance to Quebec and the rest of Canada. He has long been an advocate of a strong and united Canada, working for constructive change in Canada's federal system and in the province of Quebec. His writings have earned him numerous awards, including the national Newspaper Award in 1965, the National Press Club Award in 1966, the Quill Award in 1971 and appointment to the Canadian News Hall of Fame in 1968.

As the former leader of the Quebec Liberal Party (1978-82) Mr Ryan maintained his lifelong advocacy of a strong and united Canada and served as Chairman and Leader of the "NO Campaign" in Quebec's 1980 referendum. He was Leader of the Official Opposition (1979-82) and, as a member of the Quebec National Assembly between 1979 and 1994 served in a variety of ministerial portfolios including education, public security and municipal affairs.

Mr Ryan has also been honored for his work defending human rights (Human Relations Award from the Canadian Council of Christians and Jews in 1966 and the Jewish Labour committee Award in 1969). Well respected in both English and French Canada, he was made a Companion of the Order of Canada in 1996.

The University Senate is donating the following volume to the Bruce Peel Special Collections Library to commemorate the awarding of an honorary degree to Mr Claude Ryan:

Hochelaga Depicta: or, A New Picture of Montreal, Embracing the Early History and Present State of the City and Island, Newton Bosworth (editor), Montreal, 1846. The second enlarged edition.

This edition contains 20 engraved plates and 11 wood engravings in the text, after drawings by James Duncan, one of Canada's first historic artists and draughtsmen, and a large folding plan of the city. This major illustrated volume on historical Montreal is especially significant because it contains some of the few remaining original sources of Montreal architecture of the time.

Journaliste professionnel, citoyen activement engagé sur la scène politique, éducative et sociale, monsieur Claude Ryan, d'Outremont, Québec, est un Québécois et un Canadien hors de l'ordinaire.

Promoteur de l'éducation sous toutes ses formes, avec un intérêt particulier pour la formation continue, il fut initié à ce domaine à travers sa participation au travail des mouvements de jeunesse catholique. monsieur Ryan fut secrétaire général de L'Action catholique canadienne (1945-62), président de l'Institut canadien d'Éducation des adultes (1955-61), président d'un Groupe de travail sur l'éducation des adultes pour le compte du Gouvernement du Québec (ministère de la Jeunesse (1962-63), et membre du Conseil de direction de l'Institut des Nations-Unies pour la formation et la recherche (1964-71).

Entré au service de l'influent quotidien montréalais Le Devoir en 1962, monsieur Ryan y fut d'abord éditorialiste puis directeur et gérant général du journal de 1964 à 1978. Sous la direction de monsieur Ryan, Le Devoir joua un rôle de premier plan dans les débats politiques sur la scène québécoise et canadienne. Dans ses nombreux articles, monsieur Ryan s'employa à préconiser les réformes nécessaires au sein de la société québécoise, à défendre l'objectif d'un Canada uni et fort et à promouvoir l'adaptation du fédéralisme canadien aux réalités du jour, en particulier aux nouvelles aspirations du Québec moderne. Ses écrits lui valurent de nombreux prix, en particulier le Prix du Concours national de journalisme canadien (articles éditoriaux) en 1965, le Prix du National Press Club en 1966 et le Prix Quill, du Windsor Press Club, en 1971. Monsieur Ryan fut admis au Temple de la renommée du journalisme canadien en 1968.

Monsieur Ryan fut Chef du Parti libéral du Québec de 1978 à 1982 et Chef de l'Opposition officielle à l'Assemblée nationale de Québec de 1979 à 1982. Il fut appelé à diriger les forces du Non lors du référendum de 1981 sur l'avenir constitutionnel du Québec. Député d'Argenteuil à l'Assemblée nationale de 1979 à 1994, monsieur Ryan fut ministre au sein du Gouvernement du Québec de 1985 à 1994. Il fut titulaire des portefeuilles de l'éducation, de l'enseignement supérieur et de la science, de la sécurité publique, des affaires municipales, de l'habitation et de l'application de la Charte de la langue française.

En reconnaissance de son dévouement au service des droits de la personne et du rapprochement entre les communautés culturelles, monsieur Ryan se vit attribuer le Prix des relations humaines du Conseil des chrétiens et des juifs en 1966 et le Prix du Comité ouvrier juif en 1969. Connu et respecté au Canada français et au Canada anglais, il fut admis au sein de l'Ordre du Canada à titre de Compagnon en 1996.

Afin de commémorer la remise d'un doctorat honorifique à monsieur Claude Ryan, le Sénat de la University of Alberta fait le don du volume suivant à la bibliothèque Bruce Peel Special Collections:

Hochelaga Depicta: or, A New Picture of Montreal, Embracing the Early History and Present State of the City and Island, Newton Bosworth (éditeur), Montréal, 1846. La deuxième édition augmentée. À travers le texte, ce volume contient 20 planches gravées et 11 gravures de bois d'après des dessins originaux de James Duncan, un des premiers artistes historiques et dessinateurs industriels, en plus d'un grand plan repliable de la ville. Cette oeuvre majeure illustrée d'un Montréal historique est d'une importance spéciale parce qu'elle contient quelques-unes des dernières sources originales de l'architecture de ce temps.

Builders of Alberta Award Recipient

Alberta Teachers' Association

In 1918, the Alberta Teachers' Alliance was incorporated to advance and safeguard the cause of education in the province, to unite teachers in an association for their mutual improvement, protection and welfare, and to bring about united action on matters of common interest.

Actions taken in the 1920s set the course of much of the work of the ATA over the next seven decades. The Alliance was involved in a range of professional development activities including the establishment of the ATA Magazine in 1920. This provided one of the few professional links for teachers in isolated areas. The Alliance also established a relationship with the University of Alberta, petitioning the University to offer summer courses for teachers in 1923. Recognizing the need for a full-scale teacher education program in Alberta, the Alliance urged the government to establish a school or faculty of education at the University of Alberta. This work was instrumental in the establishment of the School of Education in 1928.

The Alliance also established a long-term relationship with the Department of Education, working to increase the requirements for teacher certification and assisting with the revision of curriculum. Throughout this decade, the Alliance also acted to improve the working conditions of teachers across the province, including improved contractual arrangements, greater employment stability and establishing the right of teachers to be consulted on all aspects of education.

In 1928, the First Alberta School Week organized by the Alliance brought stakeholders together to "stimulate a spirit of cooperation in public, parents, and school workers in the matter of Education."

In 1935 the name was changed to the Alberta Teachers' Association and membership was extended to include all teachers in the province. Major improvements were made in this decade to the working conditions and benefits of teachers.

In 1939, ME LaZerte, past-president of the ATA, was appointed as director of the University of Alberta School of Education. In 1942 LaZerte became the first Dean of the newly established Faculty of Education at the University and the ATA was given representation on Faculty Council.

Over the next four decades, the ATA continued to promote improved working conditions for teachers, achieving parity equity in 1950 and establishing a standing committee on stereotyping and discriminatory practices in 1979. The Association established specialist councils, promoted conferences for interns, began publishing the ATA News, and helped districts arrange joint teacher conventions.

The 1990s have been a time of even greater collaboration with other stakeholders in Education. In 1992 the ATA established the Joint Stakeholder Committee on Children and Poverty and in 1995, it established a Public Education Action Centre to increase the level of support for public education. For the past three years, it has been working with the University of Alberta and Alberta Education on a project to foster safe and caring schools for children throughout the province.

Since 1918, the Alberta Teachers' Association (ATA) has been a major partner in the development of high quality education in Alberta schools. Both separately and in cooperation with others, the ATA has contributed to the growth of education and the building of a world-class education system for the Province of Alberta.

The University of Alberta 90th Anniversary Builders of Alberta Awards

In celebration of our 90th Anniversary, the University of Alberta created the Builders of Alberta Awards as a way of celebrating and recognizing those groups which have made a significant contribution to Alberta's growth since 1908. Contributions to the social, economic, educational, cultural, business, health and professional dimensions of Alberta's growth were considered, and only families, foundations, institutions, businesses and other groups were eligible.

Eight recipients were chosen for this one-time-only award. Six awards were given at Spring Convocation and two at Fall Convocation.

The list of candidates for degrees, diplomas, and certificates appearing herein is subject to such corrections, with respect to additions, deletions, and changes, as may be necessary. The information as presented is current as of the program printing deadline. Graduates attending the ceremony are presented to the Chancellor alphabetically, according to the establishment date of each faculty and degree. The winner of the most prestigious award in each Faculty, if attending, is presented first.

Honorary Degree Recipient

Professor Robert Hall Haynes of Toronto, a distinguished research biologist, has had a long and celebrated career as a leader in research and scientific policy in Canada.

A fourth-generation Canadian born in London, Ontario, he graduated in mathematics and physics (1953) and biophysics (1957 PhD) from the University of Western Ontario. He is now Distinguished Research Professor of Biology at York University.

In the mid-fifties Dr Haynes joined a small but historically significant movement of physicists into biology that had begun, primarily in Germany and Britain, a few years before World War II. These migrant physicists were to play a seminal role, out of all proportion to their numbers, in the advent of molecular biology and genetic engineering—fields that continue to spawn amazing practical advances in medicine, biotechnology and plant and animal breeding, as well as basic biological research.

Dr Haynes is best known for his pioneering research on the ways in which cells are able to repair the many types of damage that chronically afflict the genetic material (DNA) of all organisms. During the past 30 years there has been a veritable explosion of research worldwide on DNA repair, and this, in turn, has led to important breakthroughs in understanding cancer, certain genetic diseases, aging, speciation and sex, as well as the biological effects of exposure to radiation and mutagenic chemicals.

Strongly committed to the promotion of science education and research as critical factors in economic and social development, Dr Haynes has also served the Canadian scientific community in many capacities. As a member of the National Research Council of Canada he was effective in championing the funding for molecular biology as a discipline.

In 1995 Dr Haynes was named the 104th president of the Royal Society of Canada. He has received numerous awards including the Royal Society of Canada's Flavelle Medal, the Biological Council of Canada's Gold Medal and the Genetics Society of Canada's Award of Excellence. In 1990, he was made an Officer of the Order of Canada.

The University Senate is donating the following volume to the Bruce Peel Special Collections Library to commemorate the awarding of an honorary degree to Professor Robert Hall Haynes:

John Carrera and Sam Walker's Putrefatti, Boston, 1995.

This extraordinary artist's book was created for the exhibition "Science and the Artist's Book" by the Smithsonian Institution, Washington, DC. It is based on a landmark 17th-century Italian book by Francesco Redi who disproved the popular belief that life could be spontaneously generated by rotting meat by various experiments.

Redi's text has been printed by hand, and images engraved, etched and printed by various techniques. The entire book must be experienced, because as one turns the pages the text is gradually encompassed by disintegration and burrowing insects. No. 11 of an edition of only 25 copies, this volume is signed by the artists, and bound in Nigerian goatskin and Terraba paper. It is a major addition to the library's collection of the contemporary book arts.

University of Alberta 90th Anniversary

Builders of Alberta Award Recipient

Rutherford/McCuaig Family

One of the most prominent families in Alberta, the Rutherford/McCuaigs have been serving the province since Alexander Cameron Rutherford arrived in 1895 to practice law. An ardent Liberal, he was quickly elected as the Strathcona representative to the Territorial Assembly in 1902, serving as deputy speaker during his first term. In 1905, when the Act of Parliament was passed making Alberta a province, Rutherford was appointed the province's first premier and then duly elected in the following months. After settling upon Edmonton as the site of the provincial capital, Rutherford turned to his chief interest of education, establishing the University of Alberta in the city of Strathcona (his constituency). While premier, Rutherford was involved in the construction of the legislative buildings, the establishment of the provincial telephone system, and the founding of the Historical Society of Alberta. He was also responsible for the Ministry of Education and the Provincial Treasury. In 1910, only a year after winning re-election, Rutherford resigned over railway building scandal allegations and party dissent. Though cleared of any wrong-doing by a royal commission, he was defeated in the 1913 election before attempting to run again for the Conservatives in 1921.

Alexander Rutherford continued his interests in education and was honored with the chancellorship of the University of Alberta in 1927, serving until his death in 1941. He enjoyed an extended association with the University of Alberta as a member of the Board of Governors from 1927-41, and of the University Senate from 1908-41. He also received several honorary doctorates from Canadian universities including Toronto, McMaster, McGill, and of course Alberta. Moreover, Rutherford served as president of the St Andrew's Society of Edmonton (1915-18), was the Director for Alberta of the National Service Commission (1916-18), was a Fellow of the British Association for the Advancement of Science and of the Royal Colonial Institute in London, and was awarded the King's Jubilee Medal and the title of honorary colonel of the 194th Highland Battalion. Following his death, Rutherford's fine book collection was donated to the University by his daughter Hazel McCuaig, and is now housed in the library which carries his name. Further public recognition of his contribution to education in Alberta was acknowledged with the founding of the AC Rutherford Scholarships.

The McCuaig side of the family began their association with the Rutherfords through their partnership in the legal firm of Rutherford, Jamieson, Rutherford and McCuaig. They were eventually linked through marriage when Stanley McCuaig married Alexander Rutherford's daughter, Hazel. The family continued Rutherford's dedication to education, founding several scholarships including the Dr Hazel McCuaig Scholarship in Property Law, and the Stanley H McCuaig Scholarship, also in Law. To mark her years of dedicated service, the University of Alberta awarded Hazel McCuaig an honorary Doctor of Laws in 1964. Mr Eric McCuaig, QC, Rutherford's grandson, continued as a partner of McCuaig Desrochers, his family's law firm, and most recently served with distinction on the University of Alberta Senate.

The University of Alberta 90th Anniversary Builders of Alberta Awards

In celebration of our 90th Anniversary, the University of Alberta created the Builders of Alberta Awards as a way of celebrating and recognizing those groups which have made a significant contribution to Alberta's growth since 1908. Contributions to the social, economic, educational, cultural, business, health and professional dimensions of Alberta's growth were considered, and only families, foundations, institutions, businesses and other groups were eligible.

Eight recipients were chosen for this one-time-only award. Six awards were given at Spring Convocation and two at Fall Convocation.

The list of candidates for degrees, diplomas, and certificates appearing herein is subject to such corrections, with respect to additions, deletions, and changes, as may be necessary. The information as presented is current as of the program printing deadline. Graduates attending the ceremony are presented to the Chancellor alphabetically, according to the establishment date of each Faculty and degree. The winner of the most prestigious award in each Faculty, if attending, is presented first.

Alumni Association Branches

While approximately 40 percent of our graduates live in Edmonton and nearby communities, more than 12,000 alumni reside in 120 different countries. There are active alumni groups in more than 35 locations. These alumni branches provide welcome social and career contacts to the graduate moving to a new area. New branches are always being formed. If there is a branch in the city where you will be establishing roots, be sure to contact the representative listed. If there is not, contact the Office of Alumni Affairs to see if there are plans for one. You might like to help get it started.

The University Coat of Arms

On 15 November 1909, the Faculty recommended to the Senate that the University of Alberta adopt the provincial Coat of Arms as its emblem, with the addition of an open book above the shield, and the motto Lux et Lex (Light and Law). In January 1911, the present motto, Quaecumque vera, was substituted for the originally proposed motto. In 1950, the form of the design was changed in keeping with the graphic style of the time, and a new description of the symbol was adopted.

In the 1980s, Dr John Schlosser, Chair of the Board of Governors, became concerned that the University of Alberta was using the provincial Coat of Arms without official heraldic authority. When Sandy Mactaggart became Chancellor in 1990, he started working with the Canadian Heraldic Authority in Ottawa to design a Coat of Arms which would be heraldically correct. He emphasized the importance of retaining the characteristics of the existing Arms of the University that have meant so much to generations of alumni, Faculty, and students.

Canada's Athabaska Herald, Mr Charles Maier, advised the University on the design of its Coat of Arms so it conforms to the traditional requirements of heraldic art. Since the Middle Ages, Coats of Arms have been regarded as honors conferred under the Sovereign's prerogative powers. In Canada, these powers are now exercised by the Governor General, who appoints heralds to provide the necessary professional expertise.

The new design was finalized in early 1994. It was presented to the University by His Excellency the Right Honourable Ramon John Hnatyshyn, Governor General of Canada, at Convocation on 13 June 1994.

The full Coat of Arms is displayed at ceremonial occasions, such as Convocation, and is used by the Chancellor, as titular head of the University.

The symbolism of the University's Armorial Bearings (Coat of Arms) is represented by the following elements:

Shield: a representation of the topography of Alberta rendered in the colors of the University. At the base is a prairie wheat field symbolizing Alberta's agricultural industry. The wavy gold line above suggests the hills and rivers of Alberta and, in particular, the setting of the University campus. The top of the shield is in gold and separated from the rest of the shield by a line suggesting the Rocky Mountains. The book of learning dominates the design.

Crest: a Grand-Duc d'Amérique, or Great Horned Owl, the provincial bird and accepted symbol of knowledge.

Supporters: the Pronghorn, taken from the provincial Coat of Arms, and the golden bear, mascot of the University. Both wear collars of the University colors, as does the owl.

Compartment (base of the Coat of Arms): a grassy mound with wild roses, the floral emblem of Alberta.

Motto: Quaecumque vera – "Whatsoever Things Are True" (Phil 4:8)

University Mace and Ceremonial Chairs

The University of Alberta Mace was designed and crafted specifically for the University as a gift from Dr Francis Phillip Galbraith, Chancellor of the University of Alberta from 1964 to 1970. It was presented by his son, Michael Galbraith, on behalf of his father on May 26, 1970.

Among its elements are the Star of Saint Thomas Aquinas, the Patron Saint of Scholars; the Wild Rose of Alberta; the Maple Leaf; and the separate charges which make up the University's Emblem. The University motto Quaecumque Vera ("Whatsoever Things Are True" Phil 4:8) encircles the staff. The Mace is sterling silver which was rhodium plated after the insertion of the various enamelled shields which make up its elements. A special electro-plate process was used to apply 24 karat gold to other parts of the Mace.

It was intended that the Mace should be modern in appearance but with medieval origins. The preponderance of visual weight at the top of the staff and the rather complex section through the metalwork at this point are reminiscent of the use of the mace as a weapon, defensive or aggressive. The Mace is carried before the Chancellor, or Vice-Chancellor, in procession and rests on its stand in full view of the assembly during Convocation. Centuries ago the Mace was a symbol of authority over life and death. Today it continues to represent power, but the power of knowledge and the importance of the University in the community.

The Chancellor's Chair was presented to the University of Alberta as a gift from the 1922 graduating class. It is made of solid oak with a padded leather back and seat. Above the padded leather back is carved the University motto Quaecumque Vera together with the class year, 1922, and the University emblem.

In 1987, the family and friends of Dr Charles Malcolm Macleod, Chair of the Board of Governors from 1950 to 1966, presented a memorial gift to the University of an oak stand for the University of Alberta Mace and two additional chairs for use by the President and the Chair of the Board of Governors at Convocation.

In the eleventh century, a new vitality quickened all aspects of the civilization of Western Europe. The creative forces thus unleashed soon found expression in new institutions, and of these the university bids fair to be the most enduring. The modern university is the lineal descendant of the university of the Middle Ages. Its purposes and organization, even much of its ceremonial, are medieval in origin.

The medieval university was originally called a studium generale, that is, a place of learning to which teachers and students from anywhere resorted. The first studia were at Salerno, Bologna, and Paris. These came into existence spontaneously and developed through the twelfth century as the needs of the time and their inner necessities dictated. In the thirteenth century these spontaneous associations crystallized into guilds or corporations endowed by Church and State with specific privileges which guaranteed the internal autonomy necessary for the vocation of study. To these corporations was increasingly applied the word universitas denoting the entire group of those responsible for the transmission of higher learning and the pursuit of knowledge.

By the beginning of the fourteenth century, two forms of university organization had appeared. At Bologna, which was primarily a higher school of canon and civil law to which came men experienced in ecclesiastical and secular administration, the control of the studium generale passed to the students; hence Bologna was a universitas scholarum. On the other hand in Paris and Oxford, whose dominant faculty was the Faculty of Arts, the studium emerged under the direction of a guild of teachers, a universitas magistrorum. Through its own officials, notably the chancellor (once symbol of external control and by now of internal autonomy), the guild of teachers developed its courses of instruction, administered its own affairs and admitted to its company only those who had met its intellectual standards. The University of Alberta stands in the tradition of Paris and Oxford.

Originally the goal of the medieval student was certification by the guild of teachers that he also was qualified to teach (the licentia docendi). With the passage of time the student's progress through the curriculum was marked by ceremonies which signified his successful attainment of a certain level (gradus or in modern language, degree) of competence. The Bachelor had completed his apprenticeship in the Faculty of Arts. The Master was now qualified to teach in that Faculty and was thus incorporated into the universitas magistrorum. The Doctor was one who, having obtained the mastership, had successfully completed the curriculum of one of the "higher" faculties (in the Middle Ages, law, medicine, and theology) and was now qualified to teach in those faculties. Inevitably the degrees of the universitas did more than admit their holders to the teaching profession. They served the wider social purpose of demonstrating their holders' fitness to serve the entire medieval community.

Today's ceremony stems from the medieval tradition. The procession of the guild of teachers, whose solemn assembly, or convocation, is the modern equivalent of the medieval magna congregatio of all faculties, is lead by the Chancellor and the Chief Marshal carrying the mace, the symbol of the University's corporate authority. The academic gowns, hoods, and caps, once the sober, disciplined dress of secular clergy and teachers, declare in their various designs and colors the academic qualifications of the Faculty. The citations and presentations by the Faculty to the Chancellor attest to him and to society the degree of proficiency attained by the students of the University. There follows a visible and public act whereby the universitas magistrorum, acting through its Chancellor, confers upon the students the appropriate degree. It is the act, not a certificate, which constitutes the validity of the degree bestowed. More, the formula, "I admit you" and the placing of the students' hands within the hands of the Chancellor and his associates, bind the students in the appropriate degree to the universitas magistrorum. The students thereafter bear for all time the mark of their association with this University. They have received what the University has been and presently is. Since they bear in themselves the promise of the future, they are what the University hopes to be. For all its solemnity, convocation is a joyous occasion.

The history of academic dress reaches far back into early days of the oldest universities. A statute of 1321 required that all "Doctors, Licentiates, and Bachelors" of the University Coimbra wear gowns. In England, in the second half of the 14th century, the statutes of certain colleges forbade "excess apparel" and prescribed the wearing of a long gown. It is still a controversial question as to whether academic dress finds its sources chiefly in ecclesiastical or in civilian dress. Gowns may have been counted necessary for warmth in the unheated buildings frequented by medieval scholars. Hoods seem to have served to cover the tonsured head until superseded for that purpose by the skull cap. This was itself displaced by a headdress more or less like one or another of those now recognized as "academic." [The mortar board, the hard, square cap commonly used as academic headdress today, evolved from the softer, more flexible "square cap" that was introduced in England in about 1490 and is named for the square board on a handle used by stone masons for holding the mixed mortar to be applied to walls.] Both Cambridge and Oxford have made academic dress a matter of university control to the extent of even its minor details and have repeatedly issued revised regulations. In Laudian days in Oxford it was prescribed that any tailor who departed from authorized design "even by a nail's breadth" in the making of any article of collegiate costume was to be punished by the vice-chancellor of the university.

Academic dress at the University of Alberta generally follows the prescription of Cambridge University in the design of the gown, and that of Oxford University in the design of the hood. The following page provides a detailed description of the academic dress at this institution.

In addition to the apparel worn by holders of degrees conferred by the University of Alberta, a collection of apparel specific to particular offices has also been developed. The President of the University wears a green gown faced with gold braid trim and lining and a green cap with a gold tassel. The Chancellor and Chancellors Emeriti wear gowns of teal blue with silver trim and black caps with silver tassels. The gowns of the senior officials bear an embroidered emblem of the University. University Governors and Senators wear stoles bearing the emblem of the University over their gowns: gold for Governors and green for Senators. The University Registrar wears a green gown with gold trim on the sleeves.

Graduates and staff of the University of Alberta who wish to purchase their own academic apparel are invited to contact: Harcourt's Limited, 26-28 Duncan Street, Toronto, ON, M5V 2B9. Order forms may be obtained by contacting the Convocation Officer in the Office of the Registrar and Student Awards.

Doctorate Degrees

Doctors' gowns (PhD, DMus, and EdD) conform to the Intercollegiate Code in design. They are made of black material and the velvet trim on the sleeves is Philosophy Blue for the PhD and DMus, and Education Light Blue for the EdD. Doctor's hoods conform to the Intercollegiate Code in shape, size, and color. They are made of black material to match the gown, and have a full lining of gold satin with a six-inch green satin chevron. The velvet trim distinguishes the two degrees and matches the velvet trim on the gown's sleeves. There is a narrow green piping where the gold lining joins the black material. Mortarboards are the standard black trencher shape with black tassels, which are worn forward and to the left.

Honorary Doctorates

Honorary Doctors of Laws, Letters, and Science wear a scarlet robe faced with white silk. Hoods are made in the Cambridge form of scarlet silk with a full lining of white silk. Caps are black velvet with a gold tassel.
